1. O Is - ra - el, a - wa - ken from your slum-ber. O Is - ra - el, you're not for - sa - ken;
2. When Is - ra - el you humble yourselves and pray. Turn from your sins, be - gin to seek His way;
3. O Can - a - da you're coun - ted in that num-ber. O Can - a - da wake from your slum - ber.

O Is - ra - el, o - pen your eyes and you will see, That long a - go, He bought your li - ber - ty.
Pardon He'll give, re - store and heal your la - nd. Jus - tice will reign, brought by His own hand.
O Can - a - da you are the Is - ra - el of old. Hear Is - ra - el, the stor - y's now been told.

O Is - ra - el, a - wake to your i - den-ti-ty: Know who you are to know your des - ti - ny.
To the lost sheep of the House of Is - ra - el; Ye - shua was sent to call them back to dwell
O Can - a - da a - wake to your i - den-ti-ty: O Can - a - da come to your des - ti - ny.

He lifts the veil, come see the plan He has for thee: To rule and reign with Him through - out e - terni - ty.
Within His fold, a cho - sen gen - er - a - tion: A roy - al priest - hood and a ho - ly na - tion.
O Can - a - da o - bey His law and you will see; His king - dom come on earth, this is our lega - cy.
