

61. The British-Israelites' Hymn Of Praise

Arthur Pritchard, 1915

tune of Hail to the Lord's Anointed

1. We sing the glo - rious prais - es of Is - rael's Lord and King, Whose
 2. And so He made pro - vi - sion for ev - ery fu - ture need, First
 3. So "Ju - dah" was His sanc - tu'ry and Is - rael His "Do - main," To 4. In Brit - ain's Isles and Em - pire, Still, Da - vid's line bears sway; God's
 5. And we, no long - er faith - less to love so strong and sure, Ex -

Love through ma - ny pha - ses proved her pe - renn - ial spring; He Ju - dah's Line di - vi - sion to bring the prom - ised "seed," Then her, God gave "the King - dom," through Him, the kings to reign; But King - dom was our fa - thers', and still is ours to - day. The ten - ders of "the King - dom" which shall for aye en - dure; Dis - formed her, chose her, named her, fore - saw her pil - grim way, His Jos - eph's ag - gre - ga - tions, with free - dom's Flag Un - fur'd! A when in land of Ca - naan, both "hous - es" ceased to be; The tide of time can ne - ver God's co - ve - nant re - move; His persed in lov - ing fore - thought, re - deemed that we might serve; By own dear flock pro - claimed her, yet knew she'd go a - stray.
