The first system of the hymn features a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and common time. The melody is in the Dorian mode. The lyrics are split into two lines, with the first line starting at the beginning and the second line starting at the second measure.

al - ways say: "We're marching on the Good Old Way." For I have a sweet hope of glory in my soul, For I watch and pray, Like sol - diers on the Good Old Way.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics continue from the previous system, with a double bar line after the first line of the second system.

have a sweet hope of glory in my soul, For I know I have, and I feel I have A sweet hope of glory in my soul.

The third system concludes the hymn. The lyrics continue from the previous system, ending with a double bar line.
