

77. The Mercy That Never Fails

Bonnie French, 20th cent.

Bonnie French, 20th cent.
Arr. Audrey Rhodes, 20th cent.

1. When my soul cries out with a heav-y heart, "Oh God, a - gain I've failed," Then He'll
2. If a friend is bowed un - der sin's dark cloud, Then take your broth-er's hand and pe -
3. Though our sins be red as a crim-son thread, and with fool - ish steps we've strayed, Out of lift me up to the throne of grace with the mercy that never fails, I'll sing Thy praises, Oh, Lord, my ti - tion Him Who for - gives your sin with the mercy that never fails, sin's dark night He brings a light, with the mercy that never fails.

God, of the love that doth pre-vail; And I'll look to Thee, on bended knee, for the mercy that never fails.